THE LOCALITY:

What3words: <https://w3w.co/claims.tapers.truffles>

Set amidst the lovely scenery of the Vale of Aeron, this is a good location for enjoying the outdoor life both in the countryside and along the coast – the area is almost equidistant between the Cambrian Mountains to the east and the Cardigan Bay coast to the west.

Talsarn is situated on the B4337 at a crossing point on the River Aeron – historically a main droving route – and cattle and horse fairs were once regular events here. There are good walking, riding and cycling routes locally – the Dylan Thomas trail follows the river from Talsarn to Aberaeron – the walk being named after the poet because he lived at nearby ‘Plas Gelli’ between 1941 and 1943 and his daughter Aeronwy (born 1942) was named after the river – he said it was “the most precious place in the world”. The entire Aeron Valley Trail can be walked from Aberaeron to Abermeurig, then across to the Teifi River Valley and on to Lampeter, a distance of about 21 miles following public footpaths and quiet country roads. Just north of the Talsarn village Castell Trefilan is the site of a motte and bailey castle built by the Normans, whilst to the south of the village the site of a Cistercian nunnery at Llanllyr dates back to 1180 (now occupied by a 19th century country house).

Felinfach village is about 3 miles south-westerly from the property with a primary school, convenience store/post office, further general store, and bus service along the A482 road, and there is a petrol station and pub (the Vale of Aeron) in the small neighbouring village of Ystrad Aeron.

Lampeter is 7 miles southerly, a market town in the Teifi River Valley, providing a good selection of shops, main post office, a leisure centre with swimming pool, cafes, restaurants and pubs, doctors and dentists, primary and secondary schools.

Aberaeron is 10 miles north-westerly at the mouth of the River Aeron on the Cardigan Bay coast. With its elegant, brightly painted houses, sparkling water and picturesque harbour, this charming Georgian seaside resort is sometimes known as the “Jewel of Cardigan Bay”. Serving the rural communities of the area, the town offers good shopping and craft centres, plenty of pubs and eateries, primary and secondary schools, doctors and dentist, leisure centre, swimming pool, 9-hole pitch & putt golf course, sailing club, regattas, boat trips and delightful walks and cycle rides. Popular New Quay is just along the coast with a sheltered harbour, sandy beaches, and cliff top walks and there are numerous other places to visit. Cardigan Bay is famous for its marine life, including dolphins, porpoises, grey seals, and variety of sea birds – and provides opportunities for sailing, surfing, leisure boat trips and long coastal walks.

The main towns of Aberystwyth, 19 miles northerly, and Carmarthen, 28 miles southerly, provide excellent shopping amenities, general hospitals, universities, main line railway stations, etc. The A48/M4-link road can be joined at Carmarthen.
